

Local News

John Robinson's show is coming to Monroe again this year, the date having been set for Tuesday, October 10th.

The Journal is asked to say that there will be a meeting of the members of the Baptist church next Sunday morning immediately after Sunday school. It is important that every member be present.

Mr. B. F. Clark, the man who lost both hands in a saw mill 3 years ago, has traded his horse for a Ford touring car and may be seen riding about in it frequently. He drives it himself, holding the steering wheel with the stubs left him and feeding the gasoline with his foot.

For some reason Mr. A. G. Anderson has been called Sprunt for some time by those who are intimate with him, but he never looked the part half so well as he does now when he gets into that Ford truck and opens her up. We suppose it would be proper to say, "Mr. Sprunt" now.

Mr. W. E. Watts, of the Hornsboro section, sold a bale of short staple cotton and the seed here Thursday for $114.59. The bale weighed 572 pounds, price 15.62 1-2. Mr. Watts says his crop is good, and that he will get nearly $2,000 worth of cotton on a two-and-a-half horse farm on which he used only $109 worth of fertilizer.

Mr. M. Price, of upper Union county, has rented the brick room next door to the City Barber shop, and is opening up a 5 and 10 cent store. He has also rented a dwelling on depot street from Mr. S. F. Ingram and has moved into it. He married Miss Kate Thompson, who is well known in Pageland.

Mungo Bros. recently cut and baled about 550 bales of peavine hay from 25 acres of their farm just north of town. They value this hay at about $400. The actual cost of peas and labor is given at $66.10. On the same land a crop of oats was harvested before the peas which was valued at about $160. Favorable seasons would have increased the yield of oats more than double. The land is now in better shape than before.

A marriage of interest to their many friends was that of Mr. Niven P. Laney and Miss Beulah A. Pigg at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Pigg, Sunday afternoon about 2:30. Rev. John W. Elkins performed the ceremony in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends. After the marriage dinner was served, and later the bridal party went to the home of the groom's father, Mr. J. A. Laney where supper was served. These are popular young people, and the best wishes of a great many people are extended.

The loss of three sons in eight days was the recent sad experience of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Tadlock, of Buford township. The boys were apparently well until the 8th of September when all three were taken sick of typhoid the same day. In five days Bennie, the youngest, age seven, was a corpse. Eight days later, Ellison, age thirteen died at 6 o'clock in the morning, and Oscar, age fifteen, at 11:30 at night. All the boys were buried at Philadelphia church in Lanes Creek township. One small daughter is the only child left at home. This was a peculiarly sad experience for the father and mother, and their friends and acquaintances sympathize with them deeply.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sellers Friday, a daughter.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Miller of Jefferson Sunday, a daughter.

Cotton sold for 16 cents on this market yesterday. Seed $2.60 a hundred, or 78 cents a bushel.

Rev. John L. Harley, the noted anti-liquor worker will begin a revival meeting in a tent here next Sunday.

Mr. W. T. Edgeworth is moving his stock of dry goods, clothing, shoes, etc. to Lancaster. He will move his family in a few days.

Mr. G. R. Knight is opening up a line of fancy groceries in connection with his repair shop in the building on McGregor street near Tadlock's shop.

Mr. Lonnie Wallace and Miss Lula Burr, both of the Guess section, were married last Wednesday by Notary S. W. Watts at his home three miles from Pageland.

Mr. Robt. New left last week for Gilbert, S. C. in Lexington county to take charge of a saw mill where Dr. J. D. Ingram recently purchased a big lot of timber.

Mr. W. R. Evans sends word that he was defeated in the race for magistrate of Mt. Croghan township by only six votes instead of nineteen as reported in this paper last week.

Mr. O. L. Smith will open up a barber shop with new fixtures in the room next door to D. E. Clark on October 2nd. The old shop will be operated by the owner, Mr. C. W. Clark, for a while.

The meeting at the Presbyterian church closed Sunday night. Dr. O. D. Jones did some of the best preaching ever done here, and though the visible results are not so great, much good was done by the meeting.

Every Democrat in Chesterfield county and in South Carolina and elsewhere who hasn't a registration certificate for voting in the November election should get one at once. Next Monday is your last chance to register in this county. Don't forget it.

Over on the front page is an account of the record bale of cotton at Monroe, which, by the way, is no record at all compared with that of Mr. J. E. Smith who sold a bale and the seed Monday for $162.46. This was a long staple bale and the price was 24 cents.

Mr. W. Thos. Laney writes from Chipley, Fla. that the boll weevil has practically destroyed the cotton crop there. He says he will gin about 200 bales this year, whereas he ginned about 2000 from the same territory two years ago, and there is no other gin to take the business away from him either. He is in Washington county in the western part of the State. The farmers there are forced to turn to other crops. How soon will the farmers here have to do the same thing, and how well will they be prepared for it?

Personals

Miss Madrit Jenkins, of Dudley, entered school here Monday morning. She is boarding at Miss Alice Threatt's.

Mr. James Baker, who lives 6 miles southwest of Pageland, carried his small daughter to a Charlotte hospital yesterday to have an acorn removed from her nostril.

Miss Sallie Blakeney spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. Reece Blakeney, who is in the Hamlet hospital.

Misses Ruby Bennett and Walker Reedy, of Clio, are visiting Miss Sallie McColl.

Letter From Alger Blackwell On The Border

Having a good time. Not much trouble down here now. Went over in Mexico the other day with one of my comrades. I tell you now I am not going any more soon for it is dangerous. They'll do you a job if they get a chance.

This is a rich country in oil, gold, silver and cattle. I think I would like to stay down here awhile after I get out of the army. I guess you saw in the State paper where we marched 36,000 strong with 40 bands through El Paso, Texas. South Carolina boys made a good showing. The parade was 15 1-2 miles long. Some of the boys fell by the wayside. Hope to see you all again.

Alger Blackwell,
Com. I, 1st Reg.

FURNITURE

To all whom this Advertisement may concern in Chesterfield and adjoining counties, and especially to the newly married and to those who are anticipating the good luck of getting married at an early date. Now I want you all to well consider the furniture proposition that I am going to make. I want every man that is intending to buy furniture this fall if it is possible to see me and get my prices before buying. My territory is not limited at all in which to sell furniture, I don't only sell it five or six miles square around Pageland, S. C. I sell tip top loads beyond towns that handle furniture, not only that I ship it to some larger towns than Pageland where there are more than one furniture business being conducted. Why now is this? Just think for a moment and you will be forced to believe that beyond any reasonable doubt that my prices must be the whole secret. Now I have a lot of furniture on hand and luck to me and to my customers I bought just one day before the 10 and 15 per cent advance in furniture and further more I haven't any store or dwelling rents to pay therefore I can afford to sell my goods for less profits than those that are not blessed with these privileges. Now I will assure you it will be money saved to any man that is going to buy furniture to get my prices before buying. I have had customers here of late who honestly told me after buying the roll foot bed that stands 66 inches high solid oak for $6.00 dollars, from me that other dealers asked for the same bedstead $7.00. to $7.50. Now I have a lot of bedstead, suits and a large stock of rockers and plain chairs in which to select from, also springs, tables, mattresses, kitchen safes, trunks and some of the prettiest matting art squares you most ever looked at and a lot of other things that is kept in a furniture line. I handle as good organs as any one I think. The Shippman organ company of Highpoint, N. C. makes them, I have sold a good many. They are guaranteed and they also have a policy with every one insured against fire or tornadoes for a period of Five Years. I also think I will have a good make of pianos on my floor in a short time.

Now I want to show the good people around that I am a friend to them and want them to spend their hard earned money where they will get more goods for less money; glance over this add and consider well and then act wisely by seeing me before you buy. This add will not appear probably more than two or three times in the Journal, but remember it ever holds good as long as H. B. Sowell continues in the business at Pageland, S. C.
